

SIFNOS

A COMPACT GUIDE

Country Greece
Inhabitants 2,500 approx.
Surface 73.94 sq. km

Currency Euro
Time Zone UTC +2
Official website <http://sifnos.gr/en/sifnos/>

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO ORGANISE YOUR VISIT

Where to eat

Lost Bay Beach Bar - Platos Gialos

How to reach Sifnos

Sifnos has no airport, therefore you will need to fly to Athens or Santorini and then take a ferry to the island. The transfer from Athens takes between three to six hours, while from Santorini it is quicker to get there. Sifnos could be also a good idea if you enjoy island hopping, as it is well connected with other small islands.

Where to stay

Pension Moschoula - Platos Gialos

Beaches

- Platos Gialos,
- Vathi,
- Paralia
- Fikada,
- Kamares,
- Chrissopigi

What to do

Visiting Castle Sifnos, the Church of Seven Martyrs in Castro and the Chrisopigi Monastery are a must-see, but you can also visit the neighbouring island of Serifos by boat or take a Greek cuisine course.

INTERESTING FACTS

The best place to watch the sunset is Lost Bay Beach Bar in Platos Gialos.

Sifnos has an extensive network of hiking trails, all easily accessible from the main population centres.

The best time of the year to visit is September, although all summer months are perfect.

WWW.ELILOVESTTRAVELLING.COM